*Ushers will seat worshippers

It is with joy that we listen to our principal of elementary schools. Mr. Ziegler's wholesome Christian influence and work is an inspiration to us.

COME TONIGHT!

High school and older young people will meet in a combined mass meeting tonight, 7:30, here at church. With Fred Koyama as general chairman, thirty minutes of peppy singing will start the ball rolling. Then ex-Los Angeles editor, Bean Takeda will speak on "How to Understand the news," presenting informally and entertainingly the proper method of reading, segregating, and knowing the news.

Following the talk, high school young people will meet separately from the older nisei to form a new Young People's group.

Come for singing, enjoyment, learning, and fellowship! Bring a friend! This is an invitation to you!

THE KING'S BUSINESS

Our midweek "Happiness Hour" this Wednesday night will feature "Paul's Experience in Jerusalem", Acts 21:15-40. Rev. K. H. Sakaue will lead the meeting.

Our friend Dr. W. Maxfield Garrett, who is dividing his time between Jerome and Rohwer camps, will be the morning speaker next Sunday.

INTO THE FOLD

The following people were baptized into the church last Sunday afternoon: Daisy Ayako Uyeda, Yoshikatsu Takeda, Dale Michiro Iwataki, Dolores Goga, Diana Goga, Lorraine Miye Sano, Frank Ige, George Okubo, Fujio Okimoto, Paul Osawa, Masao Sakaue, Takeshi Yoshida, David Izumi Oyama, Hitami Yabu, Kuniko Onura, Manhichi Masumoto, Minekichi Matsumura, and Seizo Sukio.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES HELD

The sin of man, sacrifice of Jesus and the love of God were the thoughts of meditation brought by the nisei pastor, Rev. Sakaue. Dr. Hata spoke at the Japanese service in the afternoon.

Easter Greetings and thank you for the church bulletins were sent by the following: Alice Nakada, Haruko Morita, Boston Christian Church of Camp III, Sue Okamura, and Haruko Baba.

EASTER SUNRISE

Last Sunday morning 300 Easter worshipers rose before dawn, rubbed sleepy eyes, trudged through the misty darkness tp attend the sunrise service. But there was no sunrise, only rain. The service was held indoors, and the 300 faithfuls packjammed the church to capacity and heard Drs. Nat Griswold and Shokichi Hata deliver the Easter sermons.

Outside the wind whistled bu the windows, rain splattered against the panes, and twice the lights in the church went out momentarily. But all this failed to dampen the spirits of the assembled.

Commented one firstimer:"I'm glad I came. It was a real inspiration."

Consensus was that it was a glorious Easter, though a wet one.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Our thanks to the following:

Walter Saito, Ann Arbor, Mich., for Easter offering
Mr. and Mrs. H. Kuyper for Easter offering
George Okubo for baptismal offering
Kuniko Omura, Chiyoko Miura, and Namiko Kosobayashi for offerings to the Sunday School.
Grayce and Ben Kaneda, now of Philadelphia, for Easter offering.
Mrs. Tomoe Inouye for her donation, before her departure last week.
The art classes of Mabel Jamison and Chiyeko Miyao for 45 neat posters for tonight's Young People's meeting.

PERSONALS

Hisako Kittaka left for two weeks visit to Chicago.

Home on a brief vacation is George Baba, after a year in Ann Arbor, Michigan. We are glad to have him in our midst.

Back on a hurried four-day visit are Mrs. Mary Mimbu and son Johnny, from Madison, Wisconsin. Husband-and-father Bill recently passed the Wisconsin bar, is now legal examiner.
